MOREISH MARKET

8557 RESEARCH BLVD. | AUSTIN, TEXAS | 78758

Moreish Market is a thriving retail center surrounded by dense neighborhoods and positioned along Highway 183. Formerly named Town North, this property is undergoing major renovations, including bold, elevated signage upgrades to make the visibility stand out and feel more modern. Shadow anchored by Target, this center continues to be a high traffic area for both local residents and travelers seeking the popular restaurants and stores it has to offer.

A CULINARY DESTINATION IN NORTH AUSTIN

Moreish Market is North Austin's premier dining destination, featuring a curated mix of top-tier Asian cuisine. From rich ramen and sizzling Chinese barbecue to bold Sichuan flavors and fresh sushi, the center offers an unmatched variety of authentic flavors.

With high visibility along Highway 183, Moreish Market attracts a steady flow of diners from the surrounding retail, office, and residential areas. Whether for hot pot, pho, or bubble tea, this vibrant hub delivers a high-quality culinary experience in one convenient location.

“MOREISH:”

mōr-ish | adjective, UK informal

(of food) having a very pleasant taste and making you want to eat more.

A staple for authentic Chinese barbecue, DinHo Chinese BBQ specializes in expertly roasted duck, crispy pork belly, and char siu. With its family-style dishes and traditional Cantonese flavors, it's a go-to spot for both casual diners and large gatherings.

A hidden gem for Vietnamese comfort food, Pho Van serves up steaming bowls of traditional pho, savory vermicelli plates, and fresh spring rolls. With its homemade broths and generous portions, it's a top pick for authentic Vietnamese flavors in Austin.

HOUSE OF THREE GORGES
www.houseofthreegorges.com
512-953-8666

Offering bold and fiery flavors, House of Three Gorges is known for its authentic Sichuan cuisine. Dishes like the spicy boiled fish and mapo tofu showcase the restaurant's commitment to rich, aromatic, and numbing spice profiles.

A casual and modern sushi spot, Sushi Hi is known for its all-you-can-eat sushi and fresh sashimi selections. With an extensive menu of creative rolls and Japanese favorites, it's a popular choice for sushi lovers looking for quality and value.

A beloved destination for handmade Chinese noodles and dumplings, Julie's Noodles brings the taste of Northern China to Austin. Whether it's the savory beef noodle soup or freshly made xiao long bao, diners love the high-quality ingredients and traditional preparation.

A local favorite, Ramen Tatsu-Ya is Austin's premier ramen shop, serving authentic, rich, and flavorful Japanese ramen. Known for its deeply flavorful tonkotsu broth and creative bowls, this award-winning eatery consistently draws long lines of dedicated fans.

A longtime Austin favorite for Taiwanese bubble tea and street food, Coco's Cafe is famous for its signature pearl milk tea and tasty bites like crispy popcorn chicken. Its relaxed atmosphere and refreshing drink selection make it a go-to for boba enthusiasts.

EBISU LIFE STORE

Ebisu Life Store is a Japanese lifestyle shop offering a wide range of products including blind boxes, anime merchandise, plush toys, snacks, drinks, skincare, and household goods from beloved brands like Pokémon, Smiski, and Sanrio. Founded in Osaka, Japan in 2013, Ebisu is a one-of-a-kind retail concept built around the values of quality, happiness, and harmony, bringing thousands of Japanese product categories under one roof.

INFORMATION ABOUT BROKERAGE SERVICES

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW

- (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):
- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

WRITTEN AGREEMENTS ARE REQUIRED IN CERTAIN SITUATIONS: A license holder who performs brokerage activity for a prospective buyer of residential property must enter into a written agreement with the buyer before showing any residential property to the buyer or if no residential property will be shown, before presenting an offer on behalf of the buyer. This written agreement must contain specific information required by Texas law. For more information on these requirements, see section 1101.563 of the Texas Occupations Code. Even if a written agreement is not required, to avoid disputes, all agreements between you and a broker should be in writing and clearly establish: (i) the broker's duties and responsibilities to you and your obligations under the agreement; and (ii) the amount or rate of compensation the broker will receive and how this amount is determined.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the buyer or buyer's agent. An owner's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent. A buyer/tenant's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose: that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price; that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN SHOW PROPERTY TO A BUYER/TENANT WITHOUT REPRESENTING THE BUYER/TENANT IF:

- The broker has not agreed with the buyer/tenant, either orally or in writing, to represent the buyer/tenant;
- The broker is not otherwise acting as the buyer/tenant's agent at the time of showing the property;
- The broker does not provide the buyer/tenant opinions or advice regarding the property or real estate transactions generally;
- The broker does not perform any other act of real estate brokerage for the buyer/tenant.

Before showing a residential property to an unrepresented prospective buyer, a license holder must enter into a written agreement that contains the information required by section 1101.563 of the Texas Occupations Code. The agreement may not be exclusive and must be limited to no more than 14 days.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
